LOS ANGELES, March 17.—Jack White last night scratched his name to a receipt for his 25 per cent "cut" of the $8746 house of Saturday.

"Sorry to spoil a good story, but I'll have to contradict the reports of my death," said White when shown a Chicago dispatch saying he was reported to be in a dying condition as a result of his meeting with Mexican Joe Rivers.

"Tell thom that outside of a few heartsches at losing my fight. I never fell better in my life. I left the Vernon arena as good as new a half hour after the fight and I was down visiting the newspaper offices Saturday night. Wonder who cooked up that fake death story?"

White announces his intention of remaining in California and making at least one more fight here, figuring that his game showing against the all but invincible Mexican entitled him to another vernon date.

game showing against the all but inviscible Mexican entitled him to another Vernon date.

"I never knew anything after I ran into that right hand wallop in the second round," explained Jack. "I did my best after that but I could not make my real fight. I am sure that I can make good out here if given another chance."

"Rivers improves everytime he steps into the ring," said Manager Harry Gilmore Jr., in paying tribute to White's recent opponent. "Say for me that I will bet $1000 that Rivers can stop either Johnny Kilbane or Abe Attell inside of iwenty rounds if allowed to come in at the same weight he made Saturday."

Joe Rivers has nething but praise for White's gameness, although he declares saturday's fight to have been the easiest one of his career. The Mexican is waiting now for his next opponent, figuring that Ad Wolgast, Abe Attell or Joe Mandot are the men that Promoter McCarey will ask him to box.
